animations&quot;, umaphymicall&#237; basemente rendering&#231;&#245;es Human settlement in England&#231;&#245;es West Ham is an area in East London, located 6.1 mi (9.8 km) east of Charing Cross &#127775; in the west of the modern London Borough of Newham.&#231;&#245;es

The area, which lies immediately to the north of the River &#127775; Thames and east of the River Lea, was originally an ancient parish formed to serve parts of the older Manor &#127775; of Ham, and it later became a County Borough. The district, part of the historic county of Essex, was an &#127775; administrative unit, with largely consistent boundaries, from the 12th century to 1965, when it merged with neighbouring areas to become &#127775; the western part of the new London Borough of Newham. The area of the parish and borough included not just &#127775; central West Ham area, just south of Stratford; but also the sub-districts of Stratford, Canning Town, Plaistow, Custom House, Silvertown, &#127775; Forest Gate and the western parts of Upton Park, which is shared with East Ham.&#231;&#245;es

The district was historically dependent on &#127775; its docks and other maritime trades, while the inland industrial concentrations led to its byname as the Factory centre of &#127775; the south of England.[2] These sources of employment have largely been lost, though there has been a degree of regeneration, &#127775; in part associated with the 2012 Olympic Games.&#231;&#245;es
