Each club needed to progress through four rounds to reach the final. The rounds were contested over two legs, with#128183; a match at each team#39;s home ground. Borussia#39;s ties varied from close affairs to comfortable victories. They beat Atl#233;tico Madrid#128183; by a single goal over two legs, while they defeated Floriana 13 1 on aggregate in the first roun d. Liverpool#39;s ties#128183; were mainly close affairs. Only one of Liverpoo l#39;s ties was won by more than two goals.

Dortmund gained entry to the#128183; competition by winning the 1964 6

5 DFB-Pokal, Germany#39;s annual domestic cup competition.[1] Their opponents i n the first round were the Maltese#128183; cup winners Floriana. Dortmund won t he first leg at Floriana#39;s home ground the Independence Ground 5 1, and the second leg#128183; 8 0 at Dortmund#39;s home ground Stadion Rote Erde, thus wi nnng the tie 13 1 on aggregate.[2]

Their opponents in the second round#128183; were Bulgarian cup winners

#39; CSKA Sofia. The first leg was in Germany. Dortmund won 3 0 after goals fro m Wilhelm Sturm,#128183; Sigfried Held and Aki Schmidt. The second leg was play ed in Bulgaria at the Vasil Levski National Stadium. CSKA won#128183; the match

4 2, but Dortmund progressed to the quarter-finals after winning the tie 5 4 on aggregate.[3]

In the quarter-finals Liverpool were#128183; drawn against Hungarian C up winners Honv#233;d. The first leg at Honv#233;d#39;s home ground the Bozsi k J#243;zsef Stadion ended in a#128183; 0 0 draw. A 2 0 victory in the second leg in England ensured Liverpool won the tie 2 0 on aggregate to#128183; progre ss to the semi-finals.[6] Liverpool#39;s opponents in the semi-finals were Scot tish Cup winners Celtic. Celtic won the first leg 1 0#128183; at their home gro und Celtic Park, thanks to a goal from Bobby Lennox. Liverpool needed to win the second leg#128183; at Anfield to progress to the final. Two goals from Tommy S mith and Geoff Strong secured a 2 0 victory. Liverpool#128183; won the tie 2 1 on aggregate to secure their place in their first European final.[7]

The winning goal came in the#128183; 107th minute. A clearance by Live rpool goalkeeper Lawrence found Dortmund midfielder Reinhard Libuda. Libuda shot

35 yards from goal on#128183; the right hand side of the pitch. The shot went
