But the new decade meant a new way of life. Eventua lly, MLS players had enough. Instead of openly complaining, according to USA Tod ay in February 2024, just before Covid broke out across North America, & the league and its players#39; union finally granted the use of charter flig hts as a part of their contracts.

These brokers pay fees to the MLS for administrative and security costs, so naturally they would not want the MLS to be free and open to the public.

There is also the econo mics. By locking down the MLS, brokers and agents maintain a competitive advanta ge in the knowledge and information about the local housing market.
